CONNER & OSBORNE.

The Best Electric Galvanic Belt.
A Positive cure for Rheumatism, Liver, Stomach and Kidney diseases, Disease of the blood, Skin diseases, Female Complaints, Paralysis, Neuralgia, Catarrh, Lame back and Nervous debility. This Belt is, without doubt, the best, the strongest and most scientifically constructed Electric Appliance ever introduced, being the invention of the greatest German Electrician. These Belts, unlike many so-called Electric appliances, are very light, not disagreeable to wear, and generate a current that can be immediately felt. Under no circumstances can they do harm, and must do good, no matter what the complaint is.
The following letter is from a well-known lady:
LAKE CURA, August 25th, 1889.
Mrs. E. Post--Dear Friend:--I write to let you know that I am very much improved in health since wearing the Electric Belt. Before wearing it I suffered continually with cramp in my limbs, side and shoulders, also in my feet and hands, until it seemed as though the bones would break. I am 81 years old and have had this difficulty for 30 years. I have tried all known remedies, and all have failed. After applying the Electric Belt, I found such relief that I could go to bed and sleep well. I advise all afflicted to give it a trial.
Mrs. MARY PARKER.
Mrs. E. Post, who has the exclusive agency for these appliances, can be found at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Odell, where she will be pleased to meet any who are afflicted. [1804tf]

Poultry Wanted.
I will pay a reasonable price for all kinds of poultry delivered at my place in Paw Paw. C. G. DAVIS.
1805tf

For Sale or Exchange.
I have a pair of cheap work horses I will exchange for lumber or wood delivered in Paw Paw, or will take fat stock for them. 1805tf

The decree of the circuit court, in the case of C. F. Young vs Toledo & South Haven R. R. Co., has been reversed by the supreme court, and a decree for the defendant entered.

It cost two young Paw Pawites just $9 each to demonstrate to their entire satisfaction that they were "suckers." Fred, after this you had better let street peddlars severely alone.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold a social this evening at the residence of Dr. Harrison. Supper will be served beginning at 5 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

John T. Clapp fell one day last week, striking his side upon a wash tub, fracturing two of his ribs. The injury, though quite painful, is not likely to confine him to his house a great while.

We call attention to the circular letter issued by Hon. J. J. Woodman, Sec'y of the National Grange, which contains important information to all who desire to attend the next session of that body.

Adventists have again fixed the time for the world to come to an end. This interesting event is to occur on or before Oct. 25th, next. Our readers will please govern themselves accordingly.

Ex-Gov. Sam. S. Fifield and wife, of Ashland Wis., were in town last week. Mr. Fifield was on his way home from Washington, where he had been attending the triennial convocation of Knights Templar.

Rev. H. B. Taft has just received a card from his son, G. W., saying that he would sail for Tokyo, Japan, on the 17th inst. and that forty or fifty days would probably elapse before he is again heard from.

The present fine weather affords a good opportunity to clean up your back yards, just before the heavy frosts come. Let each family consider itself a sanitary committee and thoroughly renovate the premises. Cleanliness is the precursor of good health.

A little son of A. T. Anderson had a birthday party last Saturday afternoon. A goodly number of his young friends were present, and remembered him with gifts of various kinds. They all speak in terms of praise of the fine supper provided by Mrs. Anderson.

It may be interesting to the members of the C. L. S. C. who are just now studying Roman history, to know that, had Publius Virgilius Maro, commonly known as Virgil, lived until Tuesday the 15th, inst., he would have been nineteen hundred and fifty-nine years of age.

A forcible reminder of the early days of Michigan appeared upon our streets the other day, in the shape of a canvas covered wagon, with a stove pipe sticking through its top. This rig drawn by two old horses was making for the west, where the proprietor will seek a home for himself and family.

Fire, believed by some to have been of incendiary origin, destroyed the barn of Mr. Thomas Graham last Saturday evening. Mr. Graham succeeded in saving his stock and grain. We understand that the insurance upon the property had but recently expired. Loss estimated at $1000.

Duncan Clark's Monster Combination opened their fourth engagement in our city last night to their usual crowded house. This company is too well known to say more than that they deserve the great success they are meeting with. They give a female minstrel entertainment that any lady can enjoy. [Courtant, Hartford, Dec. 21.

W. S. Charles, of Bangor, was in town yesterday.

A very pleasant surprise was given Mr. and Mrs. David Woodman last evening, by the members of the Christian church and other friends pouring into their pleasant home on east Main street. Armed with lunch baskets, the besiegers took possession of the house, and a royal good time was had.

The necessary amount of money has been raised for the purchase of a flag for the school building. The True Northerner is much pleased that its offer has been accepted, and suggestion acted upon. There will, we understand, be some exercises of a public and interesting character at the raising of "old glory."

Duncan Clark's Monster Combination turned people away at the opera house last night. The novelty of this company is sure of crowded houses. The audience was wild with delight and gave all the artists a big reception. The business will be the banner of the season at this house. [Commercial, Cleveland, Sept. 19th.

The Knights Templar parade, which took place in Washington, a few days since, is said to have been a magnificent and imposing spectacle. The weather was delightful, and the fifteen-thousand brilliantly uniformed Knights marched to the music of eighty-four brass bands. Several Van Buren County Knights participated in the parade.

It will be remembered that reference was made in these columns, some time since, to the case of Horace Sebring, of Three Oaks, who put arsenic in his parents' tea, desiring thereby to cause their death, in order that he might inherit their property and marry a certain young lady who had refused him on the grounds of his poverty. He was, on the 15th, inst., sentenced to 25 years in the state prison at Jackson.

The governor has appointed Mr. E. A. Wilkey a member of the farmers' conference which assembles at Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 13th. No better selection could, in our opinion, have been made. Mr. Wilkey is recognized as being one of our most intelligent, progressive and practical farmers. While the position is wholly honorary, there being no pay or emoluments in connection therewith, we are confident Mr. Wilkey will feel amply repaid in the means of observation which it affords.

Duncan Clark's Monster Combination opened to a big house at the Palace Family Theater last night, considering the very cold weather, and everyone was well paid for turning out. The show is out of the common rut of female minstrels, being organized to cater to lady audiences. Nothing was said or done to offend the most fastidious. Any one who can attend the opera or the Kralffy productions need not hesitate to see this company, and they are sure of large audiences during their short engagement here. [Milwaukee Sentinel, March 2.

Friends to the number of about eighty assembled in the parlors of Mr. and Mrs. Judah Sheldon, Wednesday evening Oct. 16th, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Eva C. to Harry A. Martin. The ceremony was performed by Prof. R. B. Marsh, of Dowagiac. The presents were numerous and costly. After the ceremony, the company sat down to a supper such as characterize such gatherings. At a late hour the friends departed with many loving wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Martin. We were remembered heartily, as the large box of wedding cake testified. May they live long and prosper.

We have somewhere read something about a stranger within our gates being taken in, etc. A stranger came within our gates and "took in" the people last week. It was the old story of those who expect to get something for nothing. Two of our county officials con testing with each other as to which should get the first package offered for sale. The race was decided in one heat, Charlie taking first, Mc. second. Numerous articles of cast iron cutlery sold at $1. Worth 25 cents. Silver knives and forks worth absolutely nothing found ready purchasers at $2. Had these same articles been offered by our merchants at one half the prices paid to the stranger, we doubt if they would have found ready sale. But then, it is nobody's business, and we only mention it as illustrating the liberality of our citizens.
